

Weekend with a Legend

Participate in the Ultimate Hockey Fan Experience and spend the weekend playing with some of hockey's greatest Legends. This experience will allow you to draft your favorite hockey Legend to become apart of your team for the weekend. This means they will play in all of your scheduled tournament games, hang-out in the dressing room sharing stories of their careers, and take in the nightlife with the team. All you have to do is select a player from the list below or request a player that you don't see and we will do our best to accommodate your group with the 100+ other Legends that have participated in our events.
